10:30 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.
Kent Student Center Ballroom

I.T. Connecting The World

DISCOVER YOUR CONNECTION HERE!

The Fourth Annual IT Career Expo

Discover more about career options in the Computer Information Systems and Computer Science majors

Find out:
- What are the different job options/functional areas in the field?
- What are the various industry options?
- How can I learn more?

Visit each 'Information Station' to learn what the professionals do on a day-to-day basis:
- Get your passport stamped at each station
- Spend time networking with your peers, as well as with the career professionals and executives
- Collect informational materials and 'souvenirs'
- Visit the student organizations, faculty and advising 'information stations' to find out how to become active in your career/major now!

Ask your instructors about earning extra credit for attending this event!

You may discover something or meet someone that will excite you about the careers in IT and IS:
- If students are not already majoring in Computer Information Systems (CIS), Computer Science (CS) or Digital Sciences (DS) and are interested in changing their courses of study, they may visit the advising 'information station' to make an appointment to change their major.
