

Global Health Immersion: Geneva 2024
Study Abroad Agreement

Study abroad is a once in a lifetime opportunity to travel, experience other cultures, and be exposed to fascinating topics in the field of global health. It also comes with responsibilities.

Please read each statement below carefully. If you understand and agree with each statement, place your initials on the line next to it. This is to be printed-out and completed by hand. Sign and date at the bottom and return as provided below.

_____ I understand that study abroad does not begin when I leave for the airport. The expectation is that I will be fully engaged from the time I am accepted into the program until it is completed.

_____ I understand that I am required to register for, and successfully complete, the 1 credit hour online course that runs from April 1, 2024-May 5, 2024. The course is 1 credit hour and will incur tuition and fees.

_____ I will read and respond to e-mail in a timely manner.

_____ I am required to attend (virtually for registered online students) a pre-departure briefing organized through the Office of Global Education.

_____ I am responsible for information posted on the program's Canvas site. I will thoroughly read the FAQ's and other materials.

_____ I am required to have a smartphone with a full international data plan active throughout the entire time of the trip.

_____ I will meet posted deadlines and understand that I can be dropped from the trip for failure to complete tasks on time even if I have already purchased my airline tickets.

_____ I need to have a passport no later than April 1, 2024. I understand processing times may vary and can take considerable time.

_____ I need to have my travel arrangements completed and submitted no later than May 1, 2024.

_____ WhatsApp is used to communicate with students during the trip. I will have WhatsApp installed on my phone and respond to messages no later than May 1, 2024.
