Topic

Does it seem like the résumé's you submit online vanish into a black hole? You're not alone. Most job seekers applying for jobs online never get so much as an email in return. So how exactly are people snagging offers? Find out how to be the person that your dream employer wants to hire. Getting hired is not just a matter of being qualified for the job; you have to know the right people. Increase your visibility by making connections with other people in your field.

All undergraduate psychology majors are invited to attend.
