Dear mom,

I am participating in a letter writing campaign sponsored by the Stark Campus of Kent State University in celebration of Women's History Month. These letters express gratitude to women who have positively influenced others.

Your presence in my life has been a source of strength and inspiration. The lessons you've taught me and the values you've instilled have shaped who I am today. I'll never forget the way you handled becoming the first female co-pilot for Delta Airlines in a male-dominated industry, and the ways you did so showing grace and resilience. Your ability to work and raise a family as a single mother left a lasting impression on me and continues to inspire my journey. Your determination, kindness, and commitment to the underserved in Canton and hosting people at holidays who would otherwise be alone have always been a guiding light. These achievements, big and small serve as a constant reminder of what is possible with dedication and hard work.

Thank you for being an incredible role model mom. Your impact on my life is immeasurable, and I am grateful every day to call you my hero. Here's to celebrating you not just during Women's History Month but every day!

*Love,
Diana*
