

Ashtabula Sleep Gallery

We are a successful family-owned retail business here in Ashtabula for over 40 years. We have come to find that social and digital media needs to be absolutely an integral part of our marketing and communication strategy. We have “dipped our toes” into this pool of advertising but realize we need someone to help manage this aspect for us. We are looking to employ the right person to help us with our existing website management as well as our social and digital marketing avenues and continue to move us forward in this fast paced, ever changing market.
