

Master of Education Program in Early Childhood Education

Concentration in STEM

Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics

Highlights

- Learn to engage children in interdisciplinary instruction
- Gain experience working with and integrating technology
- Integrate STEM to break down traditional boundaries

Coursework Includes

- Courses in early childhood STEM education:
 - ECED 60115 STEM Foundations for Early Childhood Education
 - ECED 60116 STEM Inquiry in Early Childhood Education
- Electives in:
 - Mathematics Education
 - Science Education
 - Educational Technology
- Additional early childhood focused courses

Endorsement Options Available

- 4/5 Endorsement
- Ohio Reading Endorsement

Additional coursework may be required.

For more information, contact:

Dr. Bridget Mulvey - bmulvey@kent.edu

Dr. Karl Kosko - kkosko1@kent.edu

www.kent.edu/earlychildhood

The M.Ed. program is designed for teachers and other professionals in fields related to education that wish to pursue advanced study in teaching, leadership, research, or public policy and advocacy.

Students are guided by faculty in the development of a self-assessment and program of study that satisfies individual professional goals and expectations of the program. All students must complete an exit project that may include a thesis, practicum, or action research project.