

GEOLOGY GRADUATE STUDENT RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

SPONSORED BY SIGMA GAMMA EPSILON

Application deadline: April 15

Submit to earthsci@kent.edu

The SGE Research Scholarship is awarded to graduate students who meet the following criteria:

- are currently active members in SGE and the Department of Geology,
- have a commitment to geology as a profession,
- have demonstrated academic achievement,
- have financial need, and
- have a current research project with a professor in the Department of Geology.

Awards will be based on the criteria above and will be of an amount and number to be determined by the SGE members each year.

DATE: _____

NAME: _____

LOCAL ADDRESS: _____

EMAIL: _____

PHONE: _____

CUMULATIVE GPA: _____ GEOLOGY GPA: _____

PROJECT TITLE: _____

ADVISOR: _____

ESTIMATED DATE OF COMPLETION: _____

In order to be considered for the scholarship, please provide the following:

- 1) A well-written, typed essay (no more than 500 words) addressing each of the following areas:
 - a) Contribution to SGE
 - b) Activities in the Department of Geology
 - c) Professional goals upon graduation
 - d) Financial need
- 2) A typed research proposal (no more than 1200 words) addressing:
 - a) Purpose of the study
 - b) Methodologies
 - c) Significance to the field
 - d) Anticipated outcomes
- 3) A detailed budget including justification of expenses and a list of all other loans, grants, scholarships, or funding that is being received.