Making Meaning of May 4

Report of the President's Commission on Campus Unrest, Map 2

Excerpted from one of the most reliable and contextualized early sources on the Kent State shootings, The Report of the President's Commission on Campus Unrest, this map illustrates the places where thirteen Kent State students were located when they were shot by members of the Ohio National Guard on May 4, 1970. Four students were killed and nine were surviving casualties. (Report of the President's Commission, 410).
