Welcome to AID Training

Name: ______ Date: _____

Greetings! A.I.D. training is a mental health awareness training that teaches how to:

Be aware of, Interact with and, Direct people in distress

We encourage you to refer to & fill out this workbook as you follow along with the A.I.D. training. Thanks for joining us today!

Learning Objectives

1

- 2
- Discuss why people with
- 2. Discuss why stigma is a problem

mental illness are

stigmatized

3. Discuss ways to reduce or prevent stigma

Learn the three steps of the A.I.D. action plan:

Awareness Interaction Direction

- 2. Go through a guided example utilizing the A.I.D. action plan
- 3. Practice the A.I.D. action plan with the group

- 1. Define mental health, stress and mental distress
- 2. Learn about the mental health continuum
- 3. Define mental health problem and mental health disorder
- 4. Learn responses to stress and mental health problems
- 5. Define stigma

Program Content

We'll be hinting at the answers to these questions during the training. Take some notes to refer to later!

How would you explain me	ental health?
What are some of your key takeaways from the terminology discussion?		What can be done to reduce or prevent mental illness stigma?
Awareness		Interaction
What are potential signs of mental distress?		What are some Communication do's and don't's?
		Do
		Do
		Do
Divoction		Don't
Direction		Don't
List some mental health help resources.

AID Action Plan

How would you apply the AID Action Plan to the practice scenario?

Awareness:
Interaction:
Direction:
Write down some self-care tips.	Extra note space

Mental Health Resources

Use these resources to help with the Direction step of the AID action plan.

National Phone Centers

Crisis TextLine The 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline

The Trevor Project | For Young LGBTQ+ Lives

Text HOME to 741-741

Call or Text 988

Text START to 678-678 or Call 1-866-488-7386

SAMHSA Treatment Referral Hotline

Text HELP4U to 435-748 or Call 1-800-662-4357

National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI)

Call 1-800-950-6264

Resource Websites

Find a Hispanic or Lantix therapist through:

Therapy for Latinx | Psychology Therapy

National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI):

Offers step-by-step plan to find a mental health professional

Find an African or Black therapist through:

Therapy for Black Girls | Therapy for Black Men
The Association of Black Psychologists

Find an Asian therapist through:

Asian Mental Health Collective | National Asian American Pacific Islander Mental Health Association

Mobile Applications

Use Calm for guided mediataion, sleep stories, and relaxing music

Use Happify with its science-based activities to reduce stress and build resilience

Use Daylio Journal to track moods and activites to improve productivity

Use Headspace to relax with guided meditations and mindfulness techniques

Hear to Help (H2H)

Hear to Help is an initiative from Kent State University that identifies individuals who have completed one or more of the mental health awareness trainings. Individuals displaying the Hear to Help logo can help connect individuals with mental health help, if necessary. To learn more, visit www.kent.edu/mhsu/h2h

The information is considered correct at the date of publication. Changes in circumstances may impact the accuracy of the information. Resources in this document do not constitute endorsement, recommendation, or favoring. You may not copy, reproduce, distribute, publish, display, modify, or in any way exploit any of the AID training content without prior permission. For permission to use the AID training content, contact Dr. Deric Kenne at dkenne@kent.edu