

Billing and Affordability Information

Fall Semester Charges

Beginning July 10, 2023, fall semester charges (tuition, fees, housing, meal plan, etc.) will be visible in FlashLine after you register for your classes and can be viewed under your My Student Account Detail.

How to View My Student Account Detail

(Displays fall charges, financial aid, and applied payments)

1. Log in to FlashLine
2. Select "Student" from the main menu.
3. Under Finances, click on "Tuition & Payments."
4. Select the first tab, "My Student Account Detail (including Financial Aid)."
5. Select the appropriate semester

Fall E-Bill/Invoice

Email notifications of your invoice will be sent to your @kent.edu email address on July 18, 2023 and the invoice will only list your actual expenses as of that day. Authorized users will also receive the invoice notification to their email. Students can assign an authorized user via FlashLine and visit our One Stop Family & Friends page for helpful videos on how students can set up user authorizations. For detailed billing information and important dates, visit the One Stop Billing & Payment Information page.

Tuition Guarantee

For most students, Kent State tuition, room and board are guaranteed for four years, which makes it easier to plan with confidence. You will also find a list of FAQs.

Room and Meal Plan Options

For students attending the Kent Campus and planning to live on campus, be sure to research room costs and meal plan options to be prepared when you receive your invoice.

Closing the Financial Gap

If you still need help covering your college expenses after completing the 2023-2024 FAFSA and accepting your financial aid offer, please explore the options below:

Outside Scholarships

Investigate whether there are any local scholarships you can apply for. Find other scholarships and reputable websites by using ScholarshipUniverse at Kent State University.

Direct PLUS Loan (For Parents Only)

Parents can apply for a Direct PLUS Loan, which is credit based. Additional loan funding is available for the student if the parent's credit application is denied. Learn more about the Direct PLUS loans on our financial aid loan page.

Monthly Payment Plan

Kent State offers students and their families the ability to spread their costs over a monthly payment plan for the fall or spring semesters.

Education Savings Plan

If you have an established education savings plan (529 Plan), please request that payment be sent to Kent State from your provider at least two weeks before the billing due date. If you have questions about using your education savings plan, please visit our 529 Plan FAQ's for more information. We recommend requesting payment by July 21, 2023, for the fall semester.

Private Loans

Students may apply for a private loan with a credit-worthy co-signer, if necessary.

Special Circumstances Application

If the information submitted on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is no longer an accurate representation of your family's current financial situation, a Special Circumstance application can be submitted with qualifying circumstances. The deadline to submit Special Circumstance applications for the Fall 2023 semester is October 1, 2023.
