Cuyahoga Community College and Kent State University

Articulation Criteria and Articulation Benefits

1. The standard articulation criteria (“Articulation Criteria”) are:
 - a. Completion of an Associate of Applied Science in Deaf Interpretative Services.
 - b. Achieving a minimum overall cumulative grade point average of 2.75.
 - c. Submission of an official College transcript.
 - d. Students must receive a pass status in the Kent State American Sign Language Portfolio Interview. Portfolio process outlined on page 10.
 - e. Completion of Bridge Courses (Other COLLEGE’s courses taken beyond AAS Deaf Interpretative Services). Refer to transfer courses on next pages; those designated with @, may be taken at the College (Appendix 2).
 - f. Fulfillment of residence requirements for the baccalaureate at Kent State University. The requirement for the degree is completion of a minimum thirty (30) credit hours of coursework (of which nine are upper-division credit hours in the major) at Kent State University. Credit earned by means of transfer courses does not count toward residence.
 - g. Courses for which the student is eligible to receive transfer credit will be based upon the articulation agreement in place at the time the student applies to KSU.

2. The articulation benefits (“Articulation Benefits”) are:
 - a. Facilitate transfer of courses between Cuyahoga Community College Associate of Applied Science in Deaf Interpretative Services, and Kent State University Bachelor of Science American Sign Language/English Interpreting, see Appendix 1.
 - b. Benefitting Northeast Ohio by infusing the job market with qualified graduates.
 - c. Students with a 3.0 GPA or higher will be eligible to apply for Kent State scholarships.
 - d. A student who completes all of the associate degree requirements in the Associate of Applied Science in Deaf Interpretative Services at Cuyahoga Community College (see Appendix 2) will be admitted into Kent State’s MAJOR program with junior status; however, this does not guarantee admission into the professional phase. Refer to Admission to the professional phase requirements listed in appendix 2 of this document.

Note: Articulation of credits at Kent State University will reflect the credits earned at the originating institution. Kent State University will not remove credits from or add additional credits to an earned undergraduate course when the course is articulated to the student's Kent State University record. In some situations, there may be calculations to convert quarter credits or course units to semester credits to adhere to Kent State University’s semester calendar system.
