Office of Sexual and Relationship Violence Support Services
Coordinated Community Response Team
Kent State University

Prevention Team
The Prevention Team is responsible for implementing strategies to promote a greater awareness of power-based personal violence (sexual assault, relationship violence and stalking), bystander responsibility and support services for those who have been victimized through power-based personal violence. Membership is made up of university staff, faculty and students as well as representatives from the greater community.
CHAIR: Sexual Assault Response Coordinator

Advisory Team
The Advisory Team reviews university policy around sexual violence and ensures that it is implemented across the university. Additionally this group monitors the 5 year strategic plan for power-based personal violence prevention and response on campus.
CO-CHAIRS: Women's Center Director, Associate Safety Director

Sexual Assault Response Team (SART)
The SART serves as a first response team to incidents of sexual violence in the university community and ensuring protocol is followed and services are victim centered.
