Rising Scholars Mentor Description
The Rising Scholars Program is looking for bright and motivated college students who are interested in becoming Rising Scholars Mentors to school-aged students from Inspiring Minds. Mentors will build meaningful relationships with their scholars, help navigate through areas of improvement, and encourage them to be the best students they can be!

Qualifications
- Commit to full participation in the program, including some work during the summer
- Maintain a GPA of 2.5 or better
- Be enrolled at the Kent State Trumbull campus as a full-time student (12 credit hours)
- Successfully pass BCI/FBI background checks
- Have access to reliable transportation and be willing to travel

Preferred but not required characteristics
- Leadership experience
- Strong verbal communication and time management skills

Compensation
- $13.50/hour, 10 hours/week, work hours will vary week to week
- Scholarship monies
- Will be paid for training hours and monthly meetings

Training and Support
- Mentors will be required to attend training sessions once hired.
- Mentors will be provided ongoing training and regular check-ins with the Rising Scholars Program Coordinator.

Position Responsibilities
- Have monthly meetings with your Rising Scholars.
- Attend all mandatory monthly trainings/staff meetings.
- Maintain regular communication with Rising Scholars Program Coordinator about your mentoring experiences. This communication will include written reports, participation in meetings and one-on-one meetings with Coordinator if needed.
- Participate and help with all Rising Scholars workshops/activities at the Trumbull campus and Inspiring Minds facility.
- Assist and lead summer workshops for Rising Scholars. (Must be enrolled for the upcoming fall in order to work in the summer)
- Assume additional responsibilities as needed.

Timeline
- Mentor application will go live October 1, 2019 and remain open until December 31, 2019 at 11:59 pm.
- Interviews will begin in November 2019.
- First group of candidates who have successfully applied and completed the interview will be notified if offered or not in December 2019.
- Once hiring process is completed, selected candidates will go through orientation and training sessions throughout the spring semester 2020.
- Work with the Rising Scholars will begin during the summer of 2020 (end of May).