Subject: NEW Online Leave of Absence Workflow for Grad Students

As an approver, when you are logged in to FLASHline, you will see all graduate student requests for Leave of Absence that are assigned to you for review and processing.

Step 1
Log into FLASHline and click on “My Lists” at the top. You will see “My Worklist”. This worklist will show all tasks assigned to you. (See Exhibit A for an example.)

Step 2
Click on the first item in your list and then the “Take Action” button next to the requester’s name. (See Exhibit B for an example. Note: The student and approver information has been shaded out.)

Step 3
Review the Request for Leave of Absence. The request will display the student’s: name, Kent State ID, request type (new or extension), leave period, international status, graduate GPA, and all graduate programs. If the student is registered for coursework during the term of the leave, the course(s) will be listed on the screen. If the student’s GPA is below the minimum 3.0 requirement, an alert will appear on the screen. (See Exhibit C for an example.)

The Request History will be displayed at the bottom of the screen. The history includes the action taken, who the action was taken by, and any comments that were entered. If the student is on a J1 or F1 Visa, the workflow will route to the Office of Global Education as the first point of review. If the student is enrolled in more than one graduate degree program, the workflow will route to each program. (See Exhibit D for an example.)

Step 4
Enter any questions, comments or concerns regarding the request. Comments are not required when approved; however, comments are required if you deny or send the request back to the student. If the department believes that an exception to the policy is warranted (e.g., student’s GPA is below 3.0), justification should be included in the comments section. Note: Comments will be visible to the student and other reviewers. (See Exhibit E for an example.)
