COLLEGE OF THE ARTS
The School of Art at Kent State University is one of the largest and most comprehensive university art departments in the state of Ohio, offering undergraduate and graduate programs in art education, art history, crafts and fine art. The school is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Art and Design.

DEGREE PROGRAMS
Bachelor of Arts
CRAFTS OR FINE ART
This program is designed for students not wishing to pursue a professional arts degree but who desire foundational skills in and a basic understanding of the concepts and methods of the visual arts, combined with a liberal education curriculum. Those with strong visual learning preferences and general interest in the arts will find this degree program a good fit.

ART EDUCATION
The program includes Ohio licensure for the teaching of art in grades pre-kindergarten through adult, with significant teaching experience prior to graduation. Certification is also available as an additional curriculum in the B.F.A. program.

ART HISTORY
The program provides a liberal education in the history of the visual arts and prepares students for advanced study resulting in research and publication, university teaching and museum/gallery careers.

Bachelor of Fine Arts
Graduates with the B.F.A. go on to pursue professions as exhibiting artists, production crafts people, designers for industry and university teachers.

CRAFTS
Concentrated pre-professional study is available in each of the following areas: ceramics, glass, jewelry/metals/enameling and textile arts.

FINE ART
Areas of pre-professional studio concentration include painting, drawing, printmaking and sculpture, as well as interdisciplinary exploration.

Master of Fine Arts and Master of Arts
Graduate programs leading to the Master of Fine Arts are available in crafts and fine art. Programs leading to the Master of Arts are available in art education, art history, crafts and fine art.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS
THE KENT/BLOSSOM ART PROGRAM
The two- and three-week intensive workshops of Kent/Blossom Art emphasize the exchange of creative concepts and techniques drawn from diverse visual media. Informal interactions among students and faculty – both resident and visiting – along with public presentations and exhibitions provide the means of exploring ideas and values beyond the student’s primary medium. Some workshops may involve off-site activities or travel. Undergraduate and graduate credit is available, as are tuition scholarships. Admission by portfolio review in April. For additional information, contact the School of Art, 330-672-1352.

SCHOLARSHIPS/FINANCIAL AID
Majors in the arts are eligible for scholarships and other forms of financial assistance through programs administered by the School of Art, the Student Financial Aid Office and the Honors College. Declared majors in art education, art history, crafts and fine arts are eligible for scholarships based on merit and financial need, as well as review of portfolio materials. Reviews are conducted each fall and spring for enrolled students.

All current scholarships for incoming and enrolled art majors are listed on the Student Financial Aid website. In addition, awards for the Northeast Central Ohio Scholastic Art competition are applied for through your high school.

Each February the Honors College sponsors the Creative Artist Awards competitions for high school seniors intending to major in art. Applications can be obtained from the Honors College, CAA Program, Kent State University, P.O. Box 5190, Kent, OH 44242-0001, telephone number 330-672-2312.

TRANSFER STUDENTS
Students transferring from another institution present a portfolio for review by the School of Art. Transfer credit will be based in part upon the results of the review, as well as upon conformity to Ohio Transfer Articulation Guidelines.

School of Art
211 Art Building
330-672-2192
department.kent.edu/art

Admissions Office
Kent State University
P.O. Box 5190
Kent, OH 44242-0001
330-672-2444
1-800-988-KENT
www.kent.edu/admissions

For information on all of Kent State’s degrees and majors, go online to www.kent.edu/gps.

Kent State University, Kent State and KSU are registered trademarks and may not be used without permission. Kent State University, an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, is committed to attaining excellence through the recruitment and retention of a diverse workforce.
PS-4185 12/12