The ASL/English Interpreting major prepares students to work with children and adults who are deaf or have hearing loss. Intensive training provides graduates with knowledge and authentic experiences to become confident, professional interpreters who are qualified to practice in educational and community settings.

DEGREE PROGRAM
- Bachelor of Science (B.S.)

PRACTICUM EXPERIENCES
- Students graduate with 500+ hours of work experience
- Community collaborations: counseling, nursing, Sorenson Video Relay Service, Purple Video Relay Services, Cleveland Hearing and Speech Center, Cleveland Museum of Art

EMPLOYMENT
Graduates of our program are employed in these areas:
- K-12 & post-secondary
- Community agencies for general practice
- Community interpreting (medical, mental health, business and industry, government, legal, and personal)
- Video relay interpreting agencies (such as Sorenson Video Relay or Purple)

For more information about the American Sign Language/English Interpreting, please visit WWW.KENT.EDU/EHHS/LOES/ASEI. You may also contact Dr. Jamie L. McCartney at JMCCAR15@KENT.EDU.
“Kent State’s Interpreting Program was challenging and rewarding. My professors were always available when I had questions, and were a great support when I needed it. There were always opportunities to have some hands-up experience to serve the community. All of this made me become the interpreter I am today. Thanks Kent State!”

DARLA WILLIAMS, B.S. IN ASL/ENGLISH INTERPRETING, ’18

“Everything I learned has prepared me for real world interpreting and I could not be more grateful. Thank you for everything!”

ANNA CHINCHIC, B.S. IN ASL/ENGLISH INTERPRETING, ’18

“The Kent State Interpreting Program has provided me with the best education I could have ever received. With the vast amount of exposure in variety of settings; I have learned that this program and my professors truly want you to succeed in everything you do. Throughout my four years at Kent State, my professors, classmates, colleagues and mentors have challenged me in ways that have no amount of thanks will ever suffice. I can assure you that you will not regret attending the Interpreting Program at Kent State University!”

JAIME CONDON, B.S. IN ASL/ENGLISH INTERPRETING, ’17