

PhD Concentration in Literature: Literary Criticism and Theory

(Revised Spring 2017, Effective Fall 2018)

Required Core Course: (3 hours) _____

ENG 76706, Methods in the Study of Literature

Required only for students on appointment: (3 hours) _____

ENG 61094, Introduction to Research in Teaching College Writing

Literary Criticism and Theory: (12 hours)

4 Literature Courses

Literary Traditions: (6 hours)

Electives: (6 hours;² 3 hours of “Research” may be used to fulfill elective requirement)

Independent Investigation: The Dissertation Prospectus (3 hours)

Total Hours: 30 hours (may include 3 “Research Hours”)

Language Requirement: _____

Qualifying Examinations:

Major Area: _____

Minor Area: _____

² Students may fill 3 credit hours of Electives with an Independent Investigation approved by the faculty member supervising the course. For additional Independent Investigation hours, the student must request graduate faculty approval.