Discussion Boards (February 27, April 23) (late submission not accepted)
Answer five discussion boards in preparation for the mid-term examination and five for the final examination. We will meet as a class on line on February 27 and April 23 (the week prior to each exam). Have the first group of five questions completed prior to the 5:30 (class time) on the 27th and the second group of five by by 5:30 on the 23rd. We will then have a basis to begin a discussion. Also prepare questions to ask each other. To access the discussion boards, hit the tab under course tools on the left margin. Late submissions are not accepted. Correct answers will be posted within 48 hours of the deadline.

Tests (March 5, April 30)
Tests are multiple choice and plaintiff-defendant and cover material discussed in class, assigned readings, and class handouts. You are expected to attend the day of the test and to complete the test on that day (unless you have scheduled to take the test through Accessibility Services). Test days are not days to schedule vacations, job interviews, dates, or recreation. If you cannot meet on the assigned test days, drop the course at this time. Individual test taking days will not be provided but under the most severe of circumstances (e.g., death in the immediate family, your own significant illness).

Term Paper (Ph.D. Students Only) (no later than April 16)
The term paper should be 10-12 double spaced pages; 1” margins all around with no larger than an 11 font. Your topic must be of interest to professionals within higher education who are concerned with legal issues involving students. The paper is due April 16. Bring a hard copy to class or put the paper in my box in room 401 White Hall. DO NOT SUBMIT THROUGH EMAIL OR VISTA.

Extra Credit (no later than March 5) (late submissions not accepted)
If you would like to earn extra credit in this course, complete the assignment below. You may earn up to 15 additional points. This paper also is due no later than the day and time of the mid-term exam (i.e., you cannot submit the paper after 5:30 p.m. on March 5). NO LATE PAPERS ACCEPTED ON THIS ASSIGNMENT.

View one of two video tapes: Legal Research for the 21st Century (tape #2 or tape #4). Number 2 deals with finding cases and #4 deals with updating statutes. These are the skills you would use after you leave this class and want to find the law on a topic. The tapes are available on reserve in the Technology Learning Center in room 221 on the Second Floor of White Hall. Review the tape of your choice (i.e., #2 or #4) and write a three page, single spaced summary.
Bring a hard copy to class or put the summaries in my box in room 401 White Hall. DO NOT SUBMIT THROUGH EMAIL OR VISTA.

Case Summaries (no later than April 16)
Research two (2) or more areas of higher education law (e.g., race discrimination in admissions, sport, speech) involving college students. Prepare brief summaries of federal circuit or Supreme Court cases since 2006 within your selected areas (i.e., district court cases will not be accepted; K-12 cases will not be accepted; employment law cases will not be accepted; cases with a decision prior to 2006 will not be accepted). Include an average of three to four (3-4) cases per page. The paper should be five to seven (5-7) pages in length (20 cases in total), single-spaced, with 1” inch margins all around. Do not include cases assigned as class readings (i.e., accessed through a Vista icon). The summaries are due two weeks prior to the final examination (i.e., April 16). (See example on Vista.) Sources include LEXIS-NEXIS (http://web.legis-nexis.com/universe) and West's Education Law Reporter (recent editions are shelved in the library reference area; older copies are on the 6th floor of the KSU library), among others. Bring a hard copy to class or put the summaries in my box in 401. DO NOT SUBMIT THROUGH EMAIL OR VISTA.

Plagiarism
Plagiarism is a serious ethical violation. Any attribution of another’s work as one’s own without appropriate credit is considered plagiarism. This applies whether information is obtained from print, presentation, or electronic sources. Moreover, it is a violation of university policy to submit a paper in two courses for credit without the knowledge and approval of the professor.

Late Penalty on Written Work
There is a 5% reduction in points for each business day (or partial day) an assignment (i.e., term paper or case summaries—does not include extra credit or discussion boards) is overdue, regardless of reason. This will be true whether your computer crashes, your dog eats the paper, you left your paper at home, you have not been feeling well, etc. Accordingly, plan ahead and do not procrastinate. It is your responsibility to submit papers on time.

Students with Disabilities
Students with disabilities must be provided reasonable accommodations to ensure their equal access to course content. If you have a documented disability and require accommodations, first verify your eligibility for accommodations through Student Accessibility Services. Call 330-672-3391 or visit www.registrar.kent.edu/disability/ or the ground floor of the DeWeese Center for more information. (See University policy 3342-3-18.) If determined eligible for accommodations, see me at the beginning of the semester to make arrangements for necessary classroom adjustments.
Case Studies Portfolio
In your final semester of the HIED program, you are to enroll in the capstone requirement, Case Studies in Higher Education (HIED 66655). A component of this course is to compile a graduate portfolio—a retrospective of one’s experience in the program and thoughts regarding one’s job search and future professional development. One part of the portfolio is to prepare a course work summary. In order to best prepare, you are encouraged to write and retain a brief reflection of this course at the end of the semester, and advised to retain copies of syllabi and course materials such as papers or projects.
