

College of Business Administration named a Best Business School by The Princeton Review, and ranked Number 151 in business schools by the U.S. News & World Report 2018. Has been AACSB-accredited since 1964, an accreditation earned by fewer than 5% of business schools worldwide.

College of Architecture and Environmental Design offers the fastest path to the NAAB-accredited MArch degree of any architecture program in the U.S.

One of the few U.S. Universities with it’s own airport, home to the university’s nationally-recognized Flight Training, as well as Air Traffic Control, Airport Management and Aeronautics Engineering programs.

Only 4-year Hospitality Management program in Ohio that is accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Programs in Hospitality Administration.

Dining Services recently voted Best Dining Experience.

10% of the Kent campus student body is international, nearly twice the national average.

Awarded nearly $1 million in scholarships to international students during 2017.

Kent State’s affordable tuition helps to keep costs low as students pursue their education.

A beautiful, tree-lined campus that is within easy access to numerous social, cultural and natural attractions.

Home to the world-renowned Liquid Crystal Institute, where liquid crystal technology was born.

An academic center located in Florence, Italy, easily and conveniently facilitates education abroad experiences.

Ranks 11th safest campus in the United States as reported by the Council for Home Safety and Security.

The four seasons are evident at Kent State with temperatures varying from 18.3˚ to 29.6˚C in summer to -6.5˚ to 2.3˚C in winter.

One of the most affordable places to live in the United States – cost of living is 10% below the national average.

When combined, Kent State’s affordable tuition, world-class academics and state-of-the-art facilities create a favorable balance between the cost and quality of an international education.

For more information, visit: www.kent.edu/globaleducation/why-kent-state