

Lifespan Development and Educational Sciences (LDES)

Graduate School Fair and Open House

September 20, 2017

6:00 to 8:00 PM

White Hall, Room 200 (Read Room)

(College of Education, Health, & Human Services)
150 Terrace Drive, Kent, OH 44242

Thinking about Graduate School?

The Graduate School Fair and Open House is the perfect opportunity for any student considering graduate school. It offers you the opportunity to receive information about and network with representatives from graduate programs within the School of Lifespan Development and Educational Sciences

Did You Know

Graduate degrees present opportunities to hone skills and provide personal growth and enrichment.

People with Master's degrees earn 30% more than those with Bachelor's degrees alone.

Come Visit Us and...

...discover exciting and rewarding careers

...identify how to prepare successful applications

...network with program representatives

Graduate Degree Programs

Counselor Education & Supervision

Human Development & Family Studies

Educational Psychology

Instructional Technology

Special Education

School Psychology

Rehabilitation Counseling

School of Lifespan Development and Educational Sciences

www.kent.edu/ehhs/lDES

For additional information or questions, email Dr. Frank J. Sansosti at fsansost@kent.edu

You do not have to be a senior or graduate to come to this fair.
Students from other universities are welcome to attend.