

School of Communication Studies Course Rotation

The School of Communication Studies has some courses that are available for enrollment every semester, every year, and every two years. Please use this document as you plan for graduation. The rotation listed below is periodically updated. Please check the School of Communication website (<http://www.kent.edu/comm>) to make sure you are looking at the most updated version of the course rotation. The course rotation listed below is a minimum expected rotation. Depending upon the number of majors in a concentration, the courses listed below may be offered more frequently than listed. The School of Communication Studies does not promise to offer any courses consistently every summer except for the ones listed below.
