GENERAL FUNDS

These funds support our general operations.

PROGRAM	DESCRIPTION
College of Nursing Capital Fund	Support for expenses related to capital needs for the College of Nursing.
College of Nursing Research Fund	Support for Kent State Institutional Review Board-approved research for the College of Nursing.
Dr. R. A. Zeller Nursing Research Fund	Support for field and research expenses for graduate students pursuing doctoral dissertation research or for junior faculty seeking research support in nursing.
Laboone-Stenporche Research Fund	Support for faculty, undergraduate and graduate nursing students conducting IRB approved research to expand the knowledge base of issues experienced by informal caregivers providing care to family members with life-threatening diseases who are receiving palliative and/or terminal care in the home setting.

RESEARCH FUNDS

The Center for Nursing Research has been the nucleus of research for the college since 1991. Although the center acquires most of their funding through external grants, internal funding is also essential to developing innovative research that may improve patient and systematic outcomes.

PROGRAM	DESCRIPTION
Dr. R. A. Zeller Nursing Research Fund	Support for field and research expenses for graduate students pursuing doctoral dissertation research or for junior faculty seeking research support in nursing.
Laboone-Stenporche Research Fund	Support for faculty, undergraduate and graduate nursing students conducting IRB approved research to expand the knowledge base of issues experienced by informal caregivers providing care to family members with life-threatening diseases who are receiving palliative and/or terminal care in the home setting.

SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Students sometimes experience unexpected financial difficulties. Our scholarship funds have allowed countless students to continue their nursing education, graduate, and enter the nursing profession. You can help future nurses with your generous gift. Even a relatively small gift can be an important leg up for a student who is in need.
