

Geography

2-Year Course Rotation: Fall 2023 - Spring 2025

REQUIREMENT AREAS	FALL 2023	SPRING 2024	FALL 2024	SPRING 2025
GEOG MAJOR REQUIREMENTS	GEOG 21062: Physical Geography GEOG 21063: Physical Geography Lab GEOG 22061: Human Geography ENVS 22070: Nature & Society	GEOG 17063: World Geography GEOG 49070: Geographic Information Science	GEOG 21062: Physical Geography GEOG 21063: Physical Geography Lab ENVS 22070: Nature & Society	GEOG 17063: World Geography GEOG 17064: Geography of US and Canada GEOG 49070: Geographic Information Science GEOG 40191: Seminar in Geography (as needed)
UPPER DIVISION ELECTIVES* (18 hours required [^])	GEOG 41066: Global Climate Change GEOG 41800: Global Environmental Issues	GEOG 41073: Conservation of Natural Resources	GEOG 41051: Natural Disasters and Society GEOG 31070: Population and Environment GEOG 32023: Food and Place GEOG 41800: Global Environmental Issues	GEOG 41073: Conservation of Natural Resources

* GEOG 46092: Internship in Geography and Planning is available any semester as external opportunities arise. (And with Flash's Food Garden annually each summer; see Dr. Post.)

[^] Some upper division courses, especially those in our GIS programming, are also offered online.

The following courses are required for the major and may be taken online or in coordination with Dr. Post:

- GEOG 29610: Mapping, Space and Power (online)
- GEOG 39002: Statistical Methods in Geography (online)

Course offerings are subject to change.
Updated 02/01/2023*

