Exam Conflicts

If there is a scheduled final examination conflict, you must contact the instructor immediately. Instructors are expected to make suitable arrangements for students with scheduled final examination conflicts. Students who have three or more final examinations on the same day should inform their instructors as early as possible for an adjustment. No rescheduling of exams will be permitted except by special arrangements of the instructor with the Assistant Dean. According to KSU website, no exams are to be scheduled from 12 noon to 2:00 pm on Thursday, May 4th for Remembrance Day. Should your final exam be during that time slot, please pick a day and time during that week or the week after, within the final exam period, that would work for you and your students.
